

Letter of Parental Consent

For minor child to attend Furry Connection North 2012

The intention of this letter is to provide consent for a minor child to attend Furry Connection North at the Detroit Novi Sheraton April 13th-15th 2012 without the company of both legal parents. The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Furry Connection North Incorporated, its directors, agents, volunteers and staff of any liability related to the child named below. In keeping with the code of conduct established by Furry Connection North, this letter of parental consent may only be used to allow children of under the age of 18 but greater than the age of 15 to attend the event unaccompanied by a legal guardian. Children under this age must be accompanied by a parent or legally appointed guardian. Furry Connection North holds no responsibility denoted or implied to provide additional oversight or child care services for the below named person during the event.

If you will be under the age of 18 at the time of the event you must complete this form and have it signed and notarized by your parent or legal guardian unless they will also be attending the convention. Failure to do so will void your registration.
